

Almost 300 Nepalese’s living and working in Queenstown.Nepalese Community in Queenstown is a community based established to promote Nepalese culture and networking within the Nepalese residing in Queenstown. Nepalese communities are growing in New Zealand particularly in Queenstown.One of our roles is to contribute in community development, work together with other communities to identify issues and facilitate to come up with resolutions and support. we are pleased with the government in their public policies that are enhancing multiculturalism, respecting diversity among us, and thus it is our community’s goal as well to promote cultural diversity in the interest of individuals and society as a whole. While Nepalese communities across New Zealand have already made significant effort in organizing and running Nepalese language educational programs, culture, religious, we intent to promote and continue that effort.
