Babysits is a website that creates a community of babysitters and parents searching for child care services. There are over 10,000 people actively using the Babysits platform in New Zealand. It is very intuitive to use and is a transparent way to help connect babysitters and parents in need. Babysits' mission is to empower communities around childcare.

Website

www.babysits.nz