Forest & Bird is New Zealand’s leading independent conservation organisation protecting and restoring our wildlife and wild places.

The branch is active in numerous projects related to the conservation of native flora and fauna, and the preservation of valuable natural landscape features.

The branch is represented in several other groups with related interests in conservation and public access to the high country, to the Clutha River and to reserves containing flora and fauna of special interest.

Details

- Email: centralotagolakes.branch@forestandbird.org.nz
- Phone: 027 9000 768

Website

www.forestandbird.org.nz/