Hospice Southland provides specialist palliative care for people with life-limiting illnesses in Southland and the Wakatipu Basin, free of charge, 24/7.

Care is delivered in our Invercargill Inpatient Unit, at home, or in aged residential care, focusing on symptom management to help you live as comfortably and meaningfully as possible.

We are committed to an authentic partnership under Te Tiriti o Waitangi to improve outcomes for Māori and Pacific people in our care.

Our dedicated team of doctors, nurses, social workers, and counsellors are here to support you to live every moment.

In Queenstown, our team is based in Frankton at the Queenstown Community Hospice House.
