

The Queenstown Embroiderers Guild is a member of the Association of New Zealand Embroidery Guilds, and meets regularly to work on individual projects and learn new techniques. We are an innovative Guild, and incorporate both traditional and modern methods in the work that is produced.

The Guild meets once a month. Meetings are generally held at St Margarets Church in Frankton, on the second Saturday of each month, and run between 10am and 4pm.

Details

- Address:
  The Stitching Post
  Queenstown

Website

queenstownembroiderersguild.wordpress.com/about/